

441—177.1(249) In-home health-related care. In-home health-related care is a program of nursing care in an individual's own home to provide personal services to an individual because such individual's state of physical or mental health prevents independent self-care.